

Tradizione Soaps

TRADIZIONE soaps are made using cold-process method. Unlike soaps available in the market that work more like detergent, cold processed soaps are mild to the skin.

Our soaps are sourced and manufactured locally using only the finest ingredients. It is rich in virgin coconut oil and packed with antioxidants that give you a healthier and younger skin. Virgin coconut oil softens and deeply moisturises your skin. It also removes dead skin cells to smoothen out your skin and give it a radiant glow.

TRADIZIONE soaps are safe to use by pregnant or lactating women. It also works well for men.

IMPORTANT TIP: It is normal for VCO to solidify when exposed to a temperature of below 25°C; this does not affect the efficiency nor have anything to do with the quality of the oil. In fact, if your massage oil does not solidify, it means it is not virgin coconut oil and other substances or processes that alter its natural characteristics may have been applied to it.

Corporate Social Responsibility

Every firm, from the smallest entity to the largest multinational corporation, can do something to help others and make a worthwhile contribution to their local community. An involvement that constitutes a wider contribution such as long term projects will help a lot more.

Tradizione, a proud local brand of personal care products, provides livelihood to communities such as SLP - Sustainable Livelihood Program Luisiana. Our bayongs are made by the Luisiana Lala Ladies of Laguna. Through this tie-up, we do not only help the SLP-LLL but the community of Luisiana as a whole.

Our supplier of certified organic VCO from the Quezon Province has the same social responsibility as Tradizione, which are to help create income and employment to small rural communities and give back to the coconut farmers.

Through our efforts to promote and market the Tradizione products, and purchases made by customers and distributors, we are all giving our hands to these beneficiaries. Let us continue being a visionary of our goal - "Made by Filipinos, For Filipinos", promoting and patronizing local products!

Mission, Vision and Core Values

Our MISSION is to contribute to the nation's economic progress through the daily application of RYTHM - Raise Yourself To Help Mankind, the same mission we share with our mother company. We do this by helping individuals achieve their goals and lead better lives through a sustainable business opportunity involving personal care products.

Our VISION is to be the number one local network marketing company in the Philippines and, in the process, become a thought leader in the direct selling industry and a positive influencer in the development of sustainable and professional network marketing communities in the country.

Our CORE VALUES are CARE, SERVICE, and INTEGRITY.

CARE: People are our greatest assets. We are committed to act with care and compassion for every life we touch.

SERVICE: 'Service above self' is a credo we live by. We are committed to serving our customers and our community with excellence, respect, and devotion.

INTEGRITY: Being ethical and honest in everything that we do lies at the heart of our DNA.
